SUO	26	28		Ge	As it is assumed that all wastewater service organizations are working for the public good. It should also be considered that manufacturers are socially responsible without providing an opinion for a new guideline which has yet to be fully vetted.	Remove this opinion statement
SUO	102	104		Te	No evidence has been presented which confirms that product breaking up in very small peices is the only criteria for compatibility. For instance, all feces is not breaking up into very small pieces. Materials may disintegrate or not and still be weak, while other materials remain strong throughout system travel.	Statement should be corrected
SUO	184		Table	Te	Toilet and Drainline Clearance Test should be accepted as written. If exceptions are needed then an entirely new method should be written.	As outlined in INDA/EDANA 2013, FG501: Toilet and Drainline Clearance Test
